Psalm 64

¹For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. Hear my voice, God, in my complaint. Preserve my life from fear of the enemy. ²Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil; ³who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, deadly words, ⁴to shoot innocent men from ambushes. They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly. ⁵They encourage themselves in evil plans. They talk about laying snares secretly. They say, “Who will see them?” ⁶They plot injustice, saying, “We have made a perfect plan!” Surely man’s mind and heart are cunning. ⁷But God will shoot at them. They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow. ⁸Their own tongues shall ruin them. All who see them will shake their heads. ⁹All mankind shall be afraid. They shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely ponder what he has done. ¹⁰The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall take refuge in him. All the upright in heart shall praise him!
